

THE GLEICHEN CALL

VOLUME XXXV NO. 27

GLEICHEN, ALBERTA, WEDNESDAY SEPTEMBER 16, 1942

SUBSCRIPTION $2.00 PER YEAR

REGISTRATION OF WOMEN TAKING PLACE THIS WEEK

Because registration of Canadian women will be compulsory under National Selective Service regulations, with the first group registering between September 14 to September 19, Mrs. Rex Eaton assistant director of National Selective Service has issued clear-cut explanations of who must register so that no women will break the law intentionally.

The first group to register will be the age classes born between January 1, 1918 and December 31, 1922. In other words, women between the ages of 20 to 24 inclusive. All women must register, with one exception and that group is made up of women who are employed and in possession of a clear-cut explanation of who must register so that no women will break the law intentionally.

Any women, however, who did register for unemployment insurance last April and are now working for wages and salaries must register again. Women who were registered last spring but have now left jobs in which they were paying unemployment insurance for those who were not insurable must register again.

For example, a girl working in a factory in April, might have left now to take farm work or domestic service, both unassured industries. She would still have her unemployment insurance card as required under the law, but because she is not working in an insurable industry so that the National Selective Service office would not have an up-to-date record of her employment.

Other groups who must register include housewives, domestic servants, farm workers, women employed in hospitals or charitable institutions, where they are not already registered; professional private duty nurses or probationers undergoing training to become professional nurses; women employed as teachers, including teachers of dancing and music who are not already registered; women employed as agents paid by commission or fees, such as real estate and insurance agents; and self employed women which will include those operating their own business, proprietors of beauty parlors, etc.

In the rural areas registration will be at the nearest post office.

The form which women are asked to fill out includes questions of their education and training and willingness to go into war work. All this age group must register, whether the women who seem to be most likely prospects for work will be called for an interview with one of the personnel workers of the National Selective Service. The interview will be detailed and explain to the women, the urgency of their place in the war effort.

Mrs. Eaton stresses that all women must not expect to be placed immediately in some essential work, for they must realize that placement in industry and essential occupations, such as nursing, social welfare or nutrition work must be carefully done.

NOTES FROM LOCAL RED CROSS ROOM

So successful was the sale of hot dogs, hamburgers, French fried potatoes and coffee, sponsored by the local branch of the Red Cross Chapter on Saturday, September 5th, that the committee in charge of the Overseas Christmas Parcels Fund has decided to arrange for another such sale. This will take place on Saturday, September 26th.

"Everyone in the district is asked to give his support to this fund as there are many parcels to be packed for local men now serving overseas."

The committee requires several pounds of sugar for each sale and householders are asked to donate one cup of sugar for their ration for this purpose. Donations of sugar may be left at Gleichen Pharmacy and the ladies request that it be given no later than September 30th. Cash donations for the fund will be received by Mr. Gilbert.

The committee suggests one meatless day for every family, and the money which would be saved on the day for meat could be turned over to the fund for Overseas Christmas Parcels. This is a meatless menu prepared by

Mrs. S. E. Dadoe, former war work convener for Gleichen Red Cross Chapter:

Breakfast—Fruit juice whole wheat cereal toast and ham coffee tea or cocoa.
Dinner at noon—Cream of carrot soup, scrambled eggs with vegetables, bread pudding with raisins, tea or milk.

Supper—Macaroni and tomatoes, toast, fresh fruit and muffs, tea or milk.

NEWS OF THE LOCAL BOYS IN THE ARMY

Pte. E. F. Woods who was a mechanic at Gleichen previous to joining the active army, has been promoted to the rank of sergeant and is now stationed at No. 13 District Depot, Calgary. Sgt. Woods was a former member of the 22nd Field Battery, R.C.A.

Pte. H. McIntosh who farmed in the district prior to enlisting in the army has been promoted to the rank of corporal. Cpl. McIntosh is also attached to No. 13 District Depot, Calgary.

Leslie Chester Menard son of Mr. and Mrs. J. Menard has been enlisted in the Royal Canadian Air Force at the Calgary Recruiting Centre as a name Music. Previous to enlisting, Aircraftman Menard has been assistant postmaster at Gleichen.

Kenneth Patrick Sheeran of Arrow wood has enlisted in the Royal Canadian Air Force at the Calgary Recruiting Centre as a wireless operator ground (trainee). Previous to enlisting, Aircraftman Sheeran has been working in a drug store.

THE WORLD OF WHEAT

Recently I was able to visit a number of prairie farmers. I found that many wheat growers, at the earnest request of the government, have taken up pig production for the first time. Many different methods of pig management were to be seen but some of it unquestionably was bad. On some farms pigs were born hairless a good percentage of the litters had died and the remaining pigs were not doing at all well.

It is obvious that many wheat growers are not aware of the latest up-to-date labor saving methods of pig feeding and management. Those who are handling pigs for the first time should, therefore, I suggest make special efforts to find out from their nearest experimental farm or provincial department of agriculture or from their district agricultural representative the methods of feeding and management that would best suit the nature of their individual farms and the feed they actually have on hand.

I am sure that many young pigs being lost can be saved, that the quantity of grain now fed can be cut down, and that much labor now expended in hauling food and water can be avoided. Cows and litters require sunshine and exercise; growing pigs need sunshine and suitable feed, and above all lots of good clean water.

ITEMS OF NEWS

OF GLEICHEN AND VICINITY

Geo. Goodenham, Jr., left Saturday evening for Winnipeg where he will attend school.

N. T. Purrel has returned to town after spending an extended holiday visiting relatives and friends.

Speaking of dismal affairs, there's the mother's effort to speak sweetly to an impatient child when company is present.

A heavy rain fell late Saturday afternoon thus further delaying harvesting. Every couple of days or so a shower falls to the disgust of everybody since it further holds up harvesting.

Revision of sugar rationing regulations now permits consumers to buy one month's supply of sugar at a time, sets September 30th as the final date on which sugar for home canning may be purchased by special voucher, and will adjust the quota system for industrial users, public caterers and institutions, the Wartime Prices and Trade Board announces. Consumers may now purchase a month's supply of sugar at one time, using coupons one and two to purchase two pounds. Coupons on the temporary ration cards allow purchase of two weeks supply at once. The ration of half a pound of sugar per person per week is the same.

Mrs. T. H. Beach has received word from relatives that her nephew Pilot Officer Thos. Hamilton of Winnipeg was killed on active service in Egypt on September 10th.

Wm. Service is remodelling his residence. For several days he has been busy cutting out the top story and lowering the roof to make his house into a bungalow. This has made a decided improvement in the appearance of his home.

The War Work Committee of the Gleichen Red Cross Society wishes to thank all those who helped to make the hot dog sale a success. The proceeds of the sale will be used to buy much needed supplies of material with which to carry on the work.

Mr. and Mrs. Rod Leggett of Calgary is spending a short holiday in town. The guest of Mr. and Mrs. A. Menard and son Leslie. Rod has enlisted and will be in the army in a short time. Just now he is having a great time hunting.

Arthur George Wade who had been an inmate in Evettsville Home for the past 15 years died last Friday at the age of 69 years. Funeral services were conducted by Major Parkinson after which burial took place in Evettsville cemetery.

Almost every sportsman who could get away to hunt was on the job bright and early Monday morning when the season opened. For several days previous local nimrods were out scouting around the country trying to find out just where the birds were most plentiful. Their efforts were well rewarded for by nightfall Monday most had obtained their bag limit. Some had very good luck in bagging geese. For the next few days [the fowl] will grace many a table.

THE WEEKLY PRESS REPRESENTATIVES IN OLD COUNTRY

(By Walter B. Legg in collaboration with C. V. Charters.)
Being the first of a series of articles on Canadian Forces in England written especially for the weekly newspapers of Canada by their newspaper representatives on a sponsored tour of England.

To pay a visit to England under present day conditions, it is first necessary to have government permission or invitation. In the case of the recent visit by Canadian editors, the trip was the result of a suggestion by General McNaughton that a party of Canadian editors should be given an opportunity to see just how the Canadian forces were living and training overseas.

Two weekly editors were asked to become members of the party and the choice fell to C. V. Charters, managing director of the C.W.N.A. and Walter B. Legg, immediate past president of the association.

After a brief preparation, the party assembled in Montreal, and prepared to leave for England by Bomber Ferry Command.

SEVEN MILLION FOR WHAT?

During 1941 owners of motor vehicles in Alberta contributed $7,113,956 in the form of licenses and taxes to the Provincial Government.

These taxes were originally applied to obtain money for good roads but a large percentage of same is being diverted to other purposes.

The Alberta Motor Association advocates that surplus revenue collected from motorists during the war should be placed in a trust fund (War Loan Bonds) to be used for road building and maintenance when peace comes.

Every owner of a motor vehicle should support this policy.

CHAPTER III

The German radio propaganda stations were going full blast, trying to capitalize to the full on the radio in France. The booming, cultured voice that came over the air was delectable:

"Attention, England! Your English friend in Germany is here again to speak to you of the great evil that is shaking the world. It is eight months since your government declared war. Since then, France has been utterly defeated, while your English expeditionary force is now trapped in a small area on the French coast, surrounded on all sides. There can be no escape from this foredoomed graveyard. Your government not only conceals from you the extent of this disaster, but also withholds the truth of the internal situation in England. There have already been serious riots in English cities."

The broadcaster in the village tavern turned off the radio with a snort of disgust. "It's all wind and white-wash," he exclaimed.

Clem, who was on civilian defence duty, and had stopped by for a drink, heard a familiar, excited voice from the doorway. "Hello, David!" cried Vin! exclaimed his father, wondering where David had been.

"Belham Airfield," answered the boy. "I've been transferred."

"Where did you go?" asked his father. "Belham Airfield," answered the boy. "I've been transferred."

No More Reprints In Britain Due To Paper Shortage

"You cannot buy 'Jane Eyre' in London today," we learn from James Agatha's column in the London Express. "You cannot buy a set of Dickens. If you don't have Shakespeare at home, it's too late now. The bookshops could sell the English classics by the hundreds—if they had them."

Apparently England is continuing to produce new books—one of them is reviewed in the article quoted. But "Jane Eyre" and "David Copperfield" and "Hamlet" are reprinted for a long, slow sale, and cannot be afforded when there is a paper shortage.

It was one of the effects of war that probably was a little foreseen as the rubber shortage, and its results can be as little predicted. The Bible is reputed to be the perennial best seller and yet if no more Bibles were printed for a hundred years, there would still be Bibles. But how many? How much does our culture depend on old books? That we could not know unless, when printing was stopped, all existing copies were destroyed.

Such a thing, we are told, has happened in Germany. Maybe that is the answer. But meanwhile it may be a good idea to re-read "Pickwick Papers" or "King Lear." There is much sanity left in them in a world hungering for sanity.—Chicago Daily News.

A Secret Preparation

British Doctors Testing Liquid Which Nazis Give Their Troops

A phial of colorless liquid, familiar to Rommel's Afrika Korps, has been unearthed by British authorities. It is a preparation which the Germans give their troops to increase endurance. A German doctor who left Germany in 1933 and went to London, claims that the Nazis have been testing the effectiveness of this concentrated, energy-giving preparation for some years and he believes that Rommel's men are receiving it, probably in tablet form. Doctors in Britain are testing the efficiency of the preparation, which is not a drug. Apparently it has been known for some time that the Germans administered drugs to their troops, just before going into battle, but now the Nazi medical organizations are discouraging the use of drugs. They claim that the ultimate effect of these "pep" drugs is harmful—that in the end resistance to fatigue and exhaustion is lowered.—Toronto Telegram.

No Change At Present

Canadians Can Still Send Special Greetings By Telegraph

Holiday greeting telegrams and other special rate social messages will not be discontinued in Canada for the present, at any rate, J. Stewart, Services Administrator for the Wartime Prices and Trade Board in Ottawa, has been commenting on the action of the United States telegraph companies in discontinuing these special services for the duration of the war. "No similar action is contemplated here," Mr. Stewart said.

Sights we have ever seen.
Soon we approached our destination and the pilot set the huge plane down with hardly a tremor. Our formalities with the customs and immigration were expedited, and after breakfast that we had not enough time to fish, we started on the train journey to London, a journey which took longer than the trip from America. Everyone has to look after his own baggage, and space on the trains is at a premium. The first group of our party were forced to stand up for hours on this long trip, but we were more fortunate in that respect, although we had nothing to eat all day until late at night in London. We have described the trip across the Atlantic in some detail but until after our return to Canada when we can write at leisure, only the outline of our activities will be given. It had been announced that we would have four days to rest up after our arrival, but we soon wondered just what they meant by "rest". Every moment seemed to be crowded with some appointment.

The Home Front

WARTIME PRICES AND TRADE BOARD

Quick action was taken by the Wartime Prices and Trade Board to meet the emergency arising from the beef situation. Resolution of cattle men and producers in Alberta that the Beef Corporation of the Wartime Prices and Trade Board should control export of beef in Canada has been enforced. This resolution was passed at each of the recent meetings of beef producers in Lacombe, High River, Macleod, Lethbridge and Medicine Hat with the view that, by a measure which would stabilize the cattle market, it is felt that the incentive to hold cattle from the market will thus be moved and an orderly flow of marketing commence again. Formerly the Beef Corporation paid subsidies to producers in order to restrain export over the border where higher prices prevailed. General satisfaction has been expressed by producers and it is felt that in time the beef shortage in Canada will be adjusted.

Instances of ration books having gone astray have been reported. Several families have received ration books belonging to other families of the same name, particularly in country areas. Rationing officials point out that it is a serious offence for anyone to retain a ration book which does not belong to him. Such a person is liable to punishment under the rationing act. Thus anyone who for any reason has received a ration book to which he is not lawfully entitled is urged to return the book at once to the rationing office, Wartime Prices and Trade Board.

Saturday was taken up with registration, and application for ration cards, photos for our passes of which there were so many that Mr. Napier Moore claimed that he had to buy a duffle bag to hold them.

Just before noon we had a conference with the Canadian High Commission, the Hon. Vincent Massey, in which he welcomed the editors. In the course of this informal discussion Mr. Massey remarked that there were too few Canadian resident correspondents, against 15 Australian and about 800 American. For lunch we were taken to the Canadian Officers Club, which is near Canada House and founders, Vincent Massey, behind a corner serving the meal.

The program for Sunday was a full one. Starting out, the two representatives of the weekly press attended a party service at St. Martin's-in-the-fields. Then after a hurried breakfast, the whole party started off in cars to visit a farm which had won many medals as the best farm in Berkshire. This will be described in more detail in subsequent articles. After a close study of this farm, we went to Maidenhead, on the banks of the Thames for luncheon.

Windsor Castle was the objective for the afternoon, and a couple of hours were spent in this historical place. After long hours of waiting, some of the party were too tired to go and listen to the orators in Hyde Park.

Sunday was an even more exciting day. Lengthy visits were paid to Canadian Red Cross Headquarters, a Canadian Legion Headquarters, the Salvation Army hostel on Southampton Row, the Y.M.C.A. hostel, on Leicester Court Road, the Knights of Columbus hostel in the same street, the Maple Leaf Club, the Union Jack Club and the Beaver Club. Then we visited the Daily Telegraph, the Reuters Building, and ended up late at night at the Daily Telegraph. In each of these places we went up and down stairs and through rooms after noon so that most of us welcomed our beds.

On Tuesday the High Commissioner gave a luncheon for the most of the party which was a notable affair in that much valuable information was secured. After visits to various places the day concluded with a visit to the Daily Express.

Wednesday morning was spent at the British Ministry of Information, and at noon we met Major General Sir Hon. P. J. Montague who is the senior officer of the Canadian Military Headquarters. This conference lasted sometime, after which detailed instructions concerning the forthcoming trip were given, and we prepared to really start work the next day. The summary of our activities will continue in the next article and more detailed accounts of the various phases of our activities will follow later.
